UTOPIA LAUNCHES NEW BROCHURE

Utopia Bathroom Group is launching a new brochure in early January to include the latest new products and range extensions.

Dramatic new photography of the YOU™ modular collection aims to promote a more creative and adventurous approach to this exciting furniture range. To facilitate this, individual components from the range are now priced separately in the brochure.

Brand new for 2009 are the Quantum Square semi-recessed basin and back to wall pan, strategic extensions to this popular sanitaryware range. Handcrafted at Utopia's wholly owned sanitaryware factory in Scotland, the Quantum Square and Quantum Round range now cater for all tastes and requirements.

Also new to the fitted furniture range is a white carcass. Replacing the white ash option, the new white carcass offers a clean, bright finish and will be available from the end of January 2009.
